CNTA to Hold Annual Oyster Roast Fundraiser in October

Citizens for Nuclear Technology Awareness (CNTA) will be hosting its annual Oyster Roast & Low Country Boil event as a fundraiser for the group's Young Professional Committee.

The public is invited to attend the event Saturday, October 7, 2023, 6:30 p.m., at the Palmetto Golf Club. Limited tickets are available for $50/person (includes drink ticket). Email cnta@bellsouth.net to learn more.

The event will include live music by Keith Gregory, raffles, and roasted oysters and low country boil from JC's Seafood in Aiken. Funds raised from the event support CNTA's outreach to young professionals, including free membership for members under 40 and events like the Tap Into Nuclear learning and networking series.

Savannah River Mission Completion is the platinum sponsor for this event. Savannah River Nuclear Solutions, Southern Nuclear, and Longenecker & Associates are gold sponsors. Silver sponsors are Applied Research Center, Huntington Ingalls Industries – Nuclear, Merrick & Company, and SRS Community Reuse Organization. Bronze sponsors are Burns & McDonnell, Centerra-SRS, Omega Technical Services, Parvati Consulting, Security Federal Bank, and the SRS Heritage Museum.

CNTA is an Aiken-based charitable educational organization dedicated to providing factual information about nuclear topics and educating the public on nuclear issues. For further information, call CNTA at 803-649-3456 or e-mail at cnta@bellsouth.net.

Cutline: The Citizens for Nuclear Technology Awareness Young Professionals Committee is hosting its annual Oyster Roast & Low Country Boil fundraiser on Saturday, October 7, 2023, 6:30 p.m., at the Palmetto Golf Club. Tickets are available at cntaware.org.
